TEMPORARY PERMIT APPLICATION FOR NON-RESIDENT APPRAISER—INSTRUCTIONS

The State of West Virginia will recognize on a temporary basis the certificate or license of a real estate appraiser in good standing issued by another state if the appraiser's business is of a temporary nature, the appraiser registers with the WV Real Estate Appraiser Licensing and Certification Board (WVREALCB) before beginning the assignment, and pays the required permit fee. The temporary permit is for a single assignment for a single client. This permit must be available during the appraisal inspection, so please allow adequate time to receive the permit before beginning the assignment. The WVREALCB has five (5) business days to process Temporary Permit applications.

1. Application must be legible. Please type or print clearly in ink.
2. Attach a copy of your current appraiser license.
3. Attach a copy of your engagement letter or evidence that your business in West Virginia is temporary. Engagement letter must include applicant's name OR the application must include a letter or email communicating the assignment has been given to the applicant.
4. Each section must be completed, and all documentation attached. Incomplete applications will be returned.
5. Mail the Temporary Permit Fee of $250 in the form of check or money order made payable to the WV Appraiser Board and the completed application to: WVAB, PO Box 40267, Charleston, WV 25364. Use only the USPS for overnight delivery to the PO Box, if deemed necessary.
6. The Temporary Permit will be sent to you via electronic mail. Allow adequate time to receive the permit before beginning the assignment.

NOTE:

Licenses are required for review appraisals when the review includes ascertaining whether the value opinion is reasonable and supported by the appraisal and could include a different opinion of value. However, when the review is administrative in nature, does not analyze the opinion of value but is a check for completeness, inclusion of client requirements and regulatory compliance, the appraiser would not be required to be permitted.

Temporary Permit holders may be granted one temporary permit extension. Send your request in writing to WVREALCB, 405 Capitol St. Suite 906, Charleston, WV 25301 or email the WVREALCB at wvappraiserboard@wv.gov

I HEREBY:

1. Acknowledge that I have read and understand the questions in this application and have answered them truthfully and completely.
2. Agree to comply with the standards set forth in the West Virginia code and Rules promulgated thereto and understand the types of misconduct for which disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against me.
3. Acknowledge that my failure to make a full and accurate disclosure of any information requested may result in the denial and/or revocation of my application for a temporary permit.
4. Agree to provide additional information or documentation that may be necessary to verify information disclosed in this application.
5. Authorize any agency of federal, state or local government, consumer reporting agency, present or former employer, or any other individual, partnership, corporation or association, in this or any state, or its representatives, to furnish any information bearing upon my background for honesty, trustworthiness, integrity and competence to transact business as a real estate appraiser in such manner as to safeguard the interests of the public. Such information may include, but is not limited to, records of any convictions for misdemeanors and/or felonies, the circumstances involved in any such convictions, and the suspension, revocation or surrender of my license authorizing me to engage in any profession or occupation.
6. Acknowledge that I understand that the temporary practice permit is not valid for any individual other than me.
7. Agree to develop and issue the appraisal report in conformance with the edition of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) in effect at the time the appraisal report is issued.
8. Acknowledge that my license/certification is in good standing in all states in which I am licensed/certified and that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and that I have not suppressed or excluded any information that may have a bearing on this application.
9. Understand that I am not allowed to practice real estate appraisal activity in West Virginia until my application is approved and I have the Temporary Practice Permit in my possession.
