APPRASIER LICENSING AND CERTIFICATION BOARD

WEST VIRGINIA REAL ESTATE APPRAISER
LICENSING AND CERTIFICATION BOARD,

Complainant,

v.

SAMANTHA L. LUSHER,

Respondent.

Complaint Number: 13-012

CONSENT DEGREE AND ORDER

Now comes the West Virginia Real Estate Appraiser Licensing and Certification Board (hereinafter the “Board”) and Samantha L. Lusher, (hereinafter the “Respondent”), for the purpose of agreeing to disciplinary action which shall be taken against the Respondent by the Board.

WHEREAS, the Board has reviewed the complaint filed against the Respondent and the Respondent’s response.

WHEREAS, the parties mutually desire to settle this issue without further prosecution and a formal hearing.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed between the undersigned parties that this matter be settled and resolved, and the parties have reached an understanding concerning the proper disposition of the matter in controversy. The Board, approving such an agreement, does hereby Find and Order as follows:
FINDINGS OF FACT

1. That the Board is the State entity created by West Virginia Code § 30-38-1 et seq. and is empowered to regulate the practice of real estate appraisers.

2. That the Respondent is a licensee of the Board, possessing Certified Residential Appraiser license number, CR1041, and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Board.

3. That pursuant to West Virginia Code § 30-38-1 et seq., the Board may revoke a license, suspend a license, reprimand a licensee or take other disciplinary action as deemed appropriate by the Board.

4. Specifically, W. Va. Code § 30-38-12(a)(11), provides the Board may suspend, revoke, . . . a license for failing or refusing without good cause to exercise reasonable diligence, or negligence or incompetence, in developing an appraisal, preparing an appraisal report, or communicating an appraisal.

5. The Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, (USPAP) Standards Rule 1-1(a), states that “[i]n developing a real property appraisal, an appraiser must . . . be aware of, understand, and correctly employ those recognized methods and techniques that are necessary to produce a credible appraisal.”

6. In May 2013, the Respondent performed an appraisal of residential property located in Hurricane, Putnam County, West Virginia (hereinafter referred to as the “Property”).

7. The appraisal contained numerous USPAP violations.

8. The Respondent failed to correctly employ appropriate methods and techniques necessary to produce an accurate appraisal of the subject property, in violation of W. Va. Code §§ 30-38-12(a)(7), 30-38-17, and USPAP Standards Rule 1-1(a).
CONCLUSION OF LAW

1. That the Board has jurisdiction to take disciplinary action against the Respondent.

2. The Respondent is a licensee of the Board and is subject to jurisdiction of the Board.

3. Based on its review of the complaint and the Respondent’s response, the Board finds that there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent may have violated certain acts of West Virginia Code § 30-38-1 et seq. and the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP), which acts, if proven to be true, would constitute professional negligence or a willful departure from standards of accepted of professional conduct, which would be grounds for disciplinary action.

4. The Respondent failed to correctly complete the research and analysis necessary to produce an accurate appraisal of the subject properties, in violation of W. Va. Code § 30-38-12(a)(7) and USPAP Standards Rule 1-1(a).

6. The Respondent failed to comply with generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice and generally accepted ethical rules to be observed by real estate appraisers in violation of West Virginia Code § 30-38-17.

7. The parties mutually agree to resolve this pending matter without further prosecution.
