BEFORE THE WEST VIRGINIA REAL ESTATE
APPRAISER LICENSING AND CERTIFICATION BOARD

WEST VIRGINIA REAL ESTATE APPRAISER
 LICENSING AND CERTIFICATION BOARD,

Complainant,

v.

COMPLAINT NO.: 14-017

PAUL RANDALL PAYNE,

Respondent.

CONSENT DECREE AND ORDER

Now comes the West Virginia Real Estate Appraiser Licensing and Certification Board ("Board") and Paul Randall Payne ("Respondent"), for the purpose of resolving the above-styled matter.

Whereas, the parties mutually desire to settle this issue, without further prosecution and a formal hearing.

Therefore, it is hereby stipulated and agreed to between the undersigned parties that this matter be settled and resolved. The parties have reached an understanding concerning the proper disposition of the matter in controversy. The Board, approving such an agreement does hereby Find and Order as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. That the Board is the State entity created by West Virginia Code § 30-38-1 et seq. and is empowered to regulate the practice of real estate appraising.

2. That the Respondent is a licensee of the Board, possessing Certified Residential Appraiser Number CR0045 and is subject to the license requirements of the Board.
3. West Virginia Code § 30-38-17 provides, in pertinent part, that “[e]ach real estate appraiser licensed or certified under this act shall comply with generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice and generally accepted ethical rules to be observed by a real estate appraiser.” Generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice are currently evidenced by the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) promulgated by the Appraisal Foundation.

4. On November 24, 2014, the Board received a complaint form from West Virginia Housing Development Fund (“HUD”), which stated that their Quality Control Manager conducted an in-depth review of appraisals performed by the Respondent from January 2013 through August 2014.

5. HUD’s alleged that their review revealed that the appraisal contained substantial error(s) and/or omission(s) that may have significantly affected the appraisal value of the subject properties in violation USPAP.

6. Further, HUD stated that their review showed that the Respondent utilized the same comparables more than once using inconsistent data.

7. On March 3, 2015, the Board’s Standards Committee met and reviewed the complaint received from HUD as well as the response from the Respondent.

8. As part of its investigation, the Standard Committee determined that an informal discussion with the Respondent was necessary.

9. On the 5th day of May 2015, the Respondent appeared before the Standards Committee for an Informal Discussion.
10. Based on the complaint, the Respondent's response and the informal conference the Standard Committee made a recommendation to the Board that the Respondent had violated at a minimum USPAP Standard 1-1(c).

11. On the 10th day of June 2015, the Board voted to initiate disciplinary proceedings against the Respondent based on his conduct in preparation of the various HUD appraisals was in violation of USPAP.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

1. Pursuant to Article 38 of Chapter 30 of the West Virginia Code, the Board is the State entity vested with the power to regulate real estate appraisers in the State of West Virginia.

2. That pursuant to West Virginia Code § 30-38-1 et seq., the Board may revoke a license, suspend a license, reprimand a licensee or take other disciplinary action for violation of the rules and regulations of the Board.

3. Specifically, West Virginia Code § 30-38-17 provides, in pertinent part, that
"[e]ach Real estate appraiser licensed or certified under this act shall comply with generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice and generally accepted ethical rules to be observed by a real estate appraiser. Generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice are currently evidenced by the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice promulgated by the appraisal foundation."

4. That the Respondent is a certified residential real estate appraiser licensed by this Board.

5. The Respondent as a licensee of the Board is subject to its license requirements.

6. Pursuant to USPAP Standard 1-1(c), an appraiser must "not render appraisal services in a careless or negligent manner, such as by making a series of errors that, although individually might not significantly affect the results of an appraisal, in the aggregate affects the credibility of those results."

7. The Respondent violated USPAP Standard 1-1(c) as outlined above.

8. The parties mutually agree to resolve this pending matter without further prosecution.
