Code §37-14-23(7) and recodified by the 2001 West Virginia Legislature as W.Va. Code §30-38-12(a)(7). As reflected in this document, the parties have reached an agreement concerning the proper disposition of this matter, and the Board approving such agreement, does hereby find and ORDER as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board is a state entity created by W.Va. Code §30-38-1 et seq, formerly W.Va. Code §37-14-1 et seq, and is empowered to regulate the practice of real estate appraising within the State of West Virginia pursuant to W.Va. Code §37-14-6(e).

2. Ralph Guynn was issued a license as a Licensed Residential Real Estate Appraiser, No. 0700.
3. In connection with the preparation of an appraisal report on January 15, 2001, for real property located at 1006 Lakeview Drive, Parkersburg, West Virginia, Mr. Guynn violated W.Va. Code §37-14-23(7) which provides that the Board may impose disciplinary sanctions for a violation of any section of Article 14, Chapter 37, or any rule of the Board. W.Va. Code §37-14-22 provides that each real estate appraiser shall comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice promulgated by the Appraisal Foundation (hereinafter USPAP). Mr. Guynn violated USPAP Standards Rule 1.1.(a) through (c) by using inappropriate comparables which resulted in a significant overvaluation of this property.

2. W.Va. Code §37-14-23(7) states that “[t]he following acts and omissions shall be considered grounds for disciplinary action by the board: violation of any section of this act, or any rule promulgated thereunder, other than section twenty-three.”

3. Pursuant to W.Va. Code §37-14-22, the Board has adopted the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) promulgated by The Appraisal Foundation.
4. The Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (1993), Standards Rule 1-1 states: “In developing a real property appraisal, an appraiser must:

(a) be aware of, understand, and correctly employ those recognized methods and techniques that are necessary to produce a credible appraisal;

(b) not commit a substantial error of omission or commission that significantly affects an appraisal; and

(c) not render appraisal services in a careless or negligent manner, such as by making a series of errors that, although individually might not significantly affect the results of an appraisal, in the aggregate affect the credibility of those results.”

5. As indicated in Finding of Fact No. 3, Mr. Guynn, a Licensed Residential Real Estate Appraiser, violated these sections of the West Virginia Code and the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (1993) by using inappropriate comparables which resulted in a significant overvaluation of this property.
